4.	Tree Removal	Removal of 2 slash pine trees from the conservation/preserve area behind the house.1 on the left and 1 on the right. we are going to take both trees down to approximately the tops of the cabbage palms in the area, leaving a trunk only. The rest of the crown of the tree will be removed and hauled away.	1	$5,500.00	$5,500.00
5.	Note	Access will be on the right side of the house. It does get a little narrow between the pool enclosure and the preserve for the tree on the left. We will definitely not be able to take debris out on the left side of the house is both neighbors have planter beds that almost touch at the front corners of the house. The main targets in the work area will be the Irrigation, lawn, and the homeowners pool enclosure.		$0.00	$0.00

7.	Note to customer	I did speak to the city arborist Ryan pieper (pronounced pee per) regarding the conservation/preserve area and permitting requirements. He did say that permitting would be required and replacements would be required as well as the conservation/preserve areas are meant to stay that way in perpetuity. I did mention that you were on the CDD board and that the homeowners had filed a complaint, registering their concerns about the potential damage the trees could cause if they were to fail and fall into their property. He didn't seem closed to the idea, but he didn't seem open either so at this point, I will let you in the city. Decide what is or isn't required. I will just have a price to facilitate the work you requested. Thanks again for the opportunity. I hope this makes sense if you have any questions please don't hesitate to call. Bobcat Trail Landscape Committee Meeting Minutes
Tuesday December 17, 2024
Bobcat Trail Community Center
1352 Bobcat Trail Boulevard
North Port Florida 34288

1. Call to Order

The meeting was called to order at 12 PM.

2. Roll Call/Statement of Quorum

Present for the meeting were Jeff Brall, Laura Filler, Val Duemmel, and Bill Hadovski representing the Bobcat Trail Landscape Committee (BCTLC). Jeff Tamayo was present part time representing Artistree. There were no residents or members of the general public present.

3. Approval/Adoption of Agenda

December 17, 2024, Bobcat Trail Landscape Committee Meeting Agenda was approved as modified (See Attachment 1).

4. Public Comment on Agenda Items

There was no public comment.

5. Meeting Minute Approval

The meeting minutes for November 19, 2024, BCTLC meeting were approved as issued.

6. Old Business

A. Artistree Contract matrix review for December 2024.

(1) The matrix for December 2024 (Attachment 4) was reviewed and the committee was assured by Artistree that all items except for the "Trim Oaks 17' Max" had been addressed.

(2) Artistree reported they plan to install the Triple Foxtail Palm on December 23.

(3) Crotons are still too tall. In addition to needing to be cut back they appear to be nutrient deficient. Work with Artistree to correct nutrient issue. The Landscape Committee should consider relocating plants to a more suitable location.

(4) A resident (Mr. Doug McNamee) has requested that the CDD provide and spread mulch in a planting area located in the front corner of his property. It has been found that ownership of this area is shared between the Golf Course and Mr. McNamee. None of it belongs to or is the responsibility of the CDD. Post Ian cleanup of this area was done by the CDD with the understanding that the resident would maintain the area at their expense going forward. (Attachment 3) is an email from the CDD landscape Committee to the resident explaining this situation.

(5) There is an open item from the previous meeting to hard trim and reduce the size of the remaining oak trees. Artistree informed the Committee that as a matter of company policy they do not trim, shape, cut back roof overhang or do any other trimming on oak trees, their effort with regards to oak trees is to insure there is adequate vertical clearance for human and vehicle traffic. For the kind of work, we are interested in Artistree recommends a company named Green Tops. Steve Grant is their owner. Artistry has provided contact information.

(6) Jasmine Minima plantings near the Community Center do not look well. As a result of Hurricane Ian, shrubs and trees in this area were badly damaged and removed. At LMP's recommendation the ground was prepped, and Jasmine Minima were planted. As of today, there are only a few left. Despite being assured by LMP that these plants were very tolerant of wild animals Artistree reports over 90% of the plants have been eaten by rabbits.

(7) Artistree reported that they do not publish an updated status report.

(8) Artistree comped Bobcat Trail fifty extra plants as part of the flower replacement planting done in November. Thanks you Artistree.

B. Monuments

(1) Except for the Crotons discussed above, the monuments are looking very good.

(2) Holiday decorations are impacting the trimming schedule. But not significantly.

C. Commercial Side/ Woodhaven/ Toledo Blade/Under the Trees.

(1) The Turf on the commercial side along and in the Center of Bobcat Village Center Road is dry filled with weeds and is not very attractive. The planting beds, areas around the trees and general trash pickup is in good shape.

(2) Artistree has looked at the Commercial Side Irrigation and reports it is working well and covering all areas.

(3) It was noted that the strip of grass behind the Hospital on the opposite side of the drainage ditch needs to be cut.

D. Bobcat Trail Aquatic and Landscape Inspection Report (Rizzetta & Company John Fowler Landscape Specialist). Note: Report available on CDD Documents Site.

(1) It was planned to review these reports observations with Artistree and develop an agreed to plan to address it, or if already addressed provide a status. However, the report was not provided to Artistree in advance of the meeting and they in turn did not have an opportunity to review the items and determine the status. It was decided to table this review until the next meeting. In the interim Jeff Brall took the action to ensure the report is distributed to Committee Members and Artistree in time to review and prep for the January Landscape Committee Meeting.

E. Miscellaneous

(1) There are still issues with the irrigation system by the front gate. The well that services the area works fine and provides plenty of water. However, the well is powered from a circuit that is downstream of the photocell that controls the power for the streetlamps. This creates the problem that there are times when the well should be running nut it does not have power due to the photocell. The timer power that controls the well could also be an issue if it is only being powered part of the time. Better coordination between area lighting and irrigation functions needs to be established.

(2) Two large pines behind a resident home on Coconut are in danger of coming down. They are in close proximity the home's cage and the home itself. The situation has been deemed a safety hazard. Taking the trees down is problematic as the area precludes getting bucket trucks etc. to the trees. It was decided that the Committee would have Artistree evaluate the situation, the Committee will then formulate an action plan based on the Artistree recommendation.

7. New Business

A. Shoval Ready projects

(1) Enhanced landscaping around the entrance way gourd house.

- Design almost complete
- Will review with committee and Artistree

- Installation

(2) Mulch/Sod enhancement project.

- Should be ready to start in February

(3) Pool Area

B. Landscape lighting

(1) Need to develop a business relationship with Landscape Lighting Company's new management/owners.

(2) Lights are not working on the left side of the community center.

(3) Many lights are out on the Commercial Side monuments.

(4) There are landscape lights out that were part of the contract with the Landscape Lighting company to repair.

C. Christmas Lights

(1) $685.88 in additional Christmas decorations for use this year and next has been procured.

(2) New LED lights will be procured for use on the back gate next year.

(3) All existing net lights with incandescent bulbs will be used on the front gate/monument areas next year. Waterproof enclosures boxes prevent GFI's from tripping will be organized accordingly.

(4) Christmas decoration take-down will be organized on the 28th of December and the take down will occur January 1, and January 2.

8. Budget

(1) No new information on the budget.

9. Public Comment

(1) No public comment.

Compliance Audit Overview

The Community Website Compliance Audit (CWCA) consists of a thorough assessment of Florida Community Development District (CDD) websites to assure that specified district information is available and fully accessible. Florida Statute Chapter 189.069 states that effective October, 2015, every CDD in the state is required to maintain a fully compliant website for reporting certain information and documents for public access.

The CWCA is a reporting system comprised of quarterly audits and an annual summary audit to meet full disclosure as required by Florida law. These audits are designed to assure that CDDs satisfy all compliance requirements stipulated in Chapter 189.069.

Compliance Criteria

The CWCA focuses on the two primary areas – website accessibility as defined by U.S. federal laws, and the 16-point criteria enumerated in Florida Statute Chapter 189.069.

ADA Website Accessibility

Several federal statutes (American Disabilities Act, Sec. 504 and 508 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973) require public institutions to ensure they are not discriminating against individuals on the basis of a person's disability. Community websites are required to conform to web content accessibility guidelines – WCAG 2.1, which is the international standard established to keep websites barrier-free and the recognized standard for ADA-compliance.

Florida Statute Compliance

Pursuant to F.S. 189.069, every CDD is required to maintain a dedicated website to serve as an official reporting mechanism covering, at minimum, 16 criteria. The information required to report and have fully accessible spans: establishment charter or ordinance, fiscal year audit, budget, meeting agendas and minutes and more. For a complete list of statute requirements, see page 3.

Audit Process

The Community Website Compliance Audit covers all CDD web pages and linked PDFs.* Following the WCAG 2.1 levels A, AA, and AAA for web content accessibility, a comprehensive scan encompassing 312 tests is conducted for every page. In addition, a human inspection is conducted to assure factors such as navigation and color contrasts meet web accessibility standards. See page 4 for complete accessibility grading criteria.

In addition to full ADA-compliance, the audit includes a 16-point checklist directly corresponding with the criteria set forth in Florida Statute Chapter 189.069. See page 5 for the complete compliance criteria checklist.

* NOTE: Because many CDD websites have links to PDFs that contain information required by law (meeting agendas, minutes, budgets, miscellaneous and ad hoc documents, etc.), audits include an examination of all associated PDFs. PDF remediation and ongoing auditing is critical to maintaining compliance.

Accessibility overview

Everyone deserves equal access.

With nearly 1-in-5 Americans having some sort of disability – visual, hearing, motor, cognitive – there are literally millions of reasons why websites should be fully accessible and compliant with all state and federal laws. Web accessibility not only keeps board members on the right side of the law, but enables the entire community to access all your web content. The very principles that drive accessible website design are also good for those without disabilities.

The legal and right thing to do

Several federal statutes (American Disabilities Act, Sec. 504 and 508 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973) require public institutions to ensure they are not discriminating against individuals on the basis of a person's disability. Community websites are required to conform to web content accessibility guidelines, WCAG 2.1, the international standard established to keep websites barrier-free. Plain and simple, any content on your website must be accessible to everyone.

ADA Compliance Categories

Most of the problems that occur on a website fall in one or several of the following categories.

Contrast and colors

Some people have vision disabilities that hinder picking up contrasts, and some are color blind, so there needs to be a distinguishable contrast between text and background colors. This goes for buttons, links, text on images – everything. Consideration to contrast and color choice is also important for extreme lighting conditions.

Using semantics to format your HTML pages

When web page codes are clearly described in easy-to-understand terms, it enables broader sharing across all browsers and apps. This 'friendlier' language not only helps all the users, but developers who are striving to make content more universal on more devices.

Text alternatives for non-text content

Written replacements for images, audio and video should provide all the same descriptors that the non-text content conveys. Besides helping with searching, clear, concise word choice can make vivid non-text content for the disabled.

Ability to navigate with the keyboard

Not everyone can use a mouse. Blind people with many with motor disabilities have to use a keyboard to make their way around a website. Users need to be able to interact fully with your website by navigating using the tab, arrows and return keys only. A “skip navigation” option is also required. Consider using WAI-ARIA for improved accessibility, and properly highlight the links as you use the tab key to make sections.

Easy to navigate and find information

Finding relevant content via search and easy navigation is a universal need. Alt text, heading structure, page titles, descriptive link text (no ‘click here’ please) are just some ways to help everyone find what they’re searching for. You must also provide multiple ways to navigate such as a search and a site map.

Properly formatting tables

Tables are hard for screen readers to decipher. Users need to be able to navigate through a table one cell at a time. In addition to the table itself needing a caption, row and column headers need to be labeled and data correctly associated with the right header.

Making PDFs accessible

PDF files must be tagged properly to be accessible, and unfortunately many are not. Images and other non-text elements within that PDF also need to be ADA-compliant. Creating anew is one thing; converting old PDFs – called PDF remediation – takes time.

Making videos accessible

Simply adding a transcript isn't enough. Videos require closed captioning and detailed descriptions (e.g., who's on-screen, where they are, what they're doing, even facial expressions) to be fully accessible and ADA compliant.

Making forms accessible

Forms are common tools for gathering info and interacting. From logging in to registration, they can be challenging if not designed to be web-accessible. How it's laid out, use of labels, size of clickable areas and other aspects need to be considered.

Alternate versions

Attempts to be fully accessible sometimes fall short, and in those cases, alternate versions of key pages must be created. That is, it is sometimes not feasible (legally, technically) to modify some content. These are the 'exceptions', but still must be accommodated.

Feedback for users

To be fully interactive, your site needs to be able to provide an easy way for users to submit feedback on any website issues. Clarity is key for both any confirmation or error feedback that occurs while engaging the page.

Other related requirements

No flashing

Blinking and flashing are not only bothersome, but can be disorienting and even dangerous for many users. Seizures can even be triggered by flashing, so avoid using any flashing or flickering content.

Timers

Timed connections can create difficulties for the disabled. They may not even know a timer is in effect, it may create stress. In some cases (e.g., purchasing items), a timer is required, but for most school content, avoid using them.

Fly-out menus

Menus that fly out or down when an item is clicked are helpful to dig deeper into the site's content, but they need to be available via keyboard navigation, and not immediately snap back when those using a mouse move from the clickable area.

No pop-ups

Pop-up windows present a range of obstacles for many disabled users, so it's best to avoid using them altogether. If you must, be sure to alert the user that a pop-up is about to be launched.
