Old Business

A. Pump House Electric Bill: Supervisor Ball reviewed that Fairway Commons HOA agreed to pay the electric bill if the CDD did not get paid through the tax assessment. The Board will have district counsel draft an agreement and include reimbursement for any repairs.
B. F-ROC Update: Supervisor Ball and Brall reviewed that the F-ROC Disaster Readiness Assessment has been submitted. Also reviewed was the need for the board to prepare Maintenance procedures and a financial emergency plan.

New Business

A. BDI Proposal: Supervisor Ball reviewed the Proposal from BDI to oversee the paving project. The board thinks the cost is high and Supervisor Ball will review with District manager to seek other options.

Resident Concerns

Supervisor Ball reviewed prior concern of residents regarding dead trees on CDD property. The board agreed to mitigate any risk to property damage and have tree work completed.

Supervisor Updates

A. Supervisor Fisher requested that any updates to the newsletter be sent to him by the end of Friday.
B. Supervisor Brall reviewed Mulch will be put down in November.
C. Supervisor Ball discussed the Ponds were treated and now that the water level is down bank week will be treated.
D. Supervisor SanAntonio reviewed that work on tennis court will start next week. We have had two gate strikes so far this month. He will also be meeting with a resident regarding a prior gate strike and payment for the damage.
E. Supervisor Branch reviewed issue with PRV 11 and has a repair estimate for $1682.28 to fix. Supervisor Brach will also meet with another PRV repair company to give the board other options for repair. Supervisor Branch also had a question regarding the policy for resident concerns. Supervisor Ball explained that the policy is in place to keep the entire board informed of concerns when they happen.
F. The board had a discussion regarding district attorney representation. Supervisor Ball will explore options with District Manager.
