Public Comments

No public comments on Agenda

Old Business

A. Pump House Electric Bill: Supervisor Ball reviewed the draft that was sent to all board members. Supervisor SanAntonio would like an end date added to agreement.
B. Pool Electric Bill: Supervisor Branch reviewed that the pool hose was left running on two occasions by the pool service company. He reviewed the 2024 vs. 2025 water bills and the cost that the district incurred due to the wasted water. This will be added to the agenda for the March meeting for the board vote to take action and recover the costs from the pool company.
C. Pool Furniture: Supervisor Branch reviewed the cost to replace the pool furniture. He will present two options to the board at the March meeting estimated cost would be $11,862. District council advised the old furniture should be coded as surplus.

New Business

A. Sunshine Law Review. District council Daniel Lewis reviewed a presentation and overview of Sunshine Laws for the Board and Committee members.
B. Butterfly Discussion. Supervisor SanAntonio reviewed updated cost of the Butterfly proposal. Cost has been reduced by over $16,000. This will be added to the agenda for the March meeting.

Resident Concerns

Supervisor Branch reviewed that a resident wanted to know the status of the paving of Silver Palm. Supervisor Ball updated the status of the project. Project is expected to start the end of April 2026.

Supervisor Updates

A. Supervisor Fisher will put out the newsletter.
B. Supervisor Brall reviewed that the holiday lights proposals are under review. He also stated the new deep well pump will be installed 2-26-26. Tree work was completed behind a home on Fishtail to prevent any damage to property.
C. Supervisor Ball reviewed the status of the paving project and a wash out at the pond in the Villas.
D. Supervisor SanAntonio reviewed that there was damage done the to tennis courts and a new lock system has been installed. The CDD newsletter will also address this issue.
E. Supervisor Branch stated the work on pool is to be completed next week. Work on street light will also begin next week.

Public Comments

A comment was made regarding Sunshine law and Board doing exploratory outing. Supervisor Ball will review with District Council.
